6:00 – 8:00 pm Michigan Reception hosted by Dow Chemical
Salon VI of the Park Hyatt Hotel

Hosted by Dow Chemical, attended by CEOs or regional VPs from Michigan-based companies with operations in China; potential Chinese investors and companies (including the afternoon prospects, if possible); significant Michigan university alumni; a delegation of MI companies traveling with the Detroit Chinese Business Association (DCBA) and the Michigan delegation traveling with Governor Snyder (state government representatives, university presidents, local partners, attending MI press, etc.).

Participants: All members of the Michigan delegation

Complete guest list will be attached

Agenda: 6:00 – reception begins
6:30 – Peter Sykes, Pres. Dow Greater China does intro
6:40 - Governor gives welcome, has brief remarks and toast

8:00 – 10:00 pm Private business dinner
Salon III of the Park Hyatt Shanghai

This dinner will serve as an opportunity for the Governor to meet and interact with Chinese companies who have made direct investment in Michigan, or may. As relationship building is perhaps the most important aspect to developing projects with Chinese firms, the opportunity for the Governor to thank those companies who have made investments already, and listen to their questions or concerns, will go very far in cementing their ties to Michigan, and may favorably impact the prospects in the room

NOTES:

Talking Points:

1) Michigan welcomes Chinese investment, technology partnerships, and looks to strengthen its relationship with, and standing in, China.
2) Michigan is undergoing substantial structural change that will benefit companies looking to invest, and help make them competitive within the NAFTA region.
3) Michigan is interested in learning about policies and practices that spur growth and investment and how those ideas might be implemented in our state to the same end.
4) How can the state make a favorable impression on your Chinese counterparts, suppliers, and customers to encourage expansion and growth in Michigan?
5) As there will be a significant presence automotive companies in the room, there may be questions about the state's commitment to vehicle electrification and the auto industry as a whole.

BACKGROUND:
Ningbo Huaxiang Electronic Co. Ltd. Is in negotiation to set up a Joint Venture in Michigan and then acquire partial shares of a Michigan supplier. Also looking for companies in Grand Rapids area.

Zhang joins Revstone after serving as CEO of Techrim, vice president of Bernal Technologies and EVP of Bernal-Yawa. "I am pleased to lead Revstone into the Chinese market, which is the fastest growing market in the world," said Zhang.

"The quality of our products and our manufacturing know-how will be a welcome addition to China's large and growing transportation industry." A statement from Revstone noted that often when a company focuses on growing its presence in China, the perception is that it plans to ship jobs overseas. Zhang emphasised this was not the case for Revstone, which is committed to preserving and growing American jobs.

"Revstone's American employees and customers will also benefit," Zhang said, adding "as the improved access to affordable raw materials will add to the competitiveness of Revstone products made in America. This should be good news to our American team members."

Dexiu MA(important guest at the reception)
Chairwoman of the University Council, Shanghai Jiao Tong University

Professor Ma earned her graduate degrees in the Department of Automatic Control of Xi'an Jiaotong University. She formerly taught at Xi'an Jiaotong University and Northern Jiaotong University. She then assumed posts as deputy division chief, division chief, and then director of the National Planning Committee's Department of Science and Technology.

In June 1998, Professor Ma became director of the Department of Industrial Development of High-Technology, the National Developing and Planning Committee. Beginning in April 2003, she served as director of the Department of the Industrial Development of High-Technology, the National Development and Reform Committee. She was appointed Chairwoman of the University Council of Shanghai Jiaotong University in September 2003. In this capacity, Professor Ma oversees the overall work of SJTU's University Council.
