About 4 o'clock Friday afternoon the enemys batteries three in number opened on us with shot and shels but we got behind our intrenchments and it did us but little harm our batteries soon opened on them and soon made them hold their peace but not an till they had killed two and wounded four of our Reg the killed were Sergeant Brindle Co B " " Tart Co I the same that kept blacksmith shop on the ridge Early Saturday morning our batteries on the other side of the river commenced moving up to ours as we thought & when the rebs opened