...as there when they ...nkeled into position ...and then commenced ...one of the most terrific ...artillery fights I ever heard ...Under cover of this fire ...we had orders to fall ...back across the river which ...was done so quietly that ...the enemy never suspected ...we were going until our ...pickets commenced falling ...back As soon as all were ...across we started for ...the right and arrived at ...the bridge about 9 o'clock ...where we laid over ...for the night & early ...the next morning ...we crossed over and took ...position on the Gardenville ...road just behind Gen ...Sykes division of regulars