where we had a little about an hours ago when we were ordered further to the right to guard a road

the extreme left Sedgewick has crossed at Franklins and the heights. rebellion is about played out their army is demoralized and they are deserting by dozens and scores and our lines they say their men will not fight except when drunk eight or ten hundred prisoners were taken yesterday all more light as a brick Gen Hancock passed down our lines and was cheered on all sides showing how perfect confidence we have in him and will fight to the last
