where we laid untill about an hour ago when we were ordered further to the right to guard a road Since we came from the extreme left Sedgewick has crossed at Fredericks the Heights rebellion is about played out their army is demoralized and they are deserting by dozens and coming into our lines they say their men will not fight except when drunk eight or ten hundred prisoners were taken yesterday all were tight as a brick Gen. Hooker passed down our lines and was cheered on all sides the army have perfect confidence in him and will fight to the last

I reload a letter from Sefe Friday he is about the same as when she left us his address is
