X	Dartmouth College	El Hajj Malik el Shabazz Center for Intellectual Inquiry /Latin American, Latino and Caribbean house	Both are undergraduate housing facilities. Part of "affinity programs," which are educational living programs focused around interest groups. Upperclassmen must apply to live in these houses. Other living learning houses exist such as the Native American House, Kade German Center, etc. Some have program offices and apartments for visiting scholars.	None	http://www.dartmouth.edu/~orl/housing/communities/affinities.html
X	UC-Berkeley	Multicultural Community Center	Recently moved to a smaller space from the original Heller Lounge in the MLK Jr. Union building. From the website, the center is currently located in a make shift and temporary space: a metal clad building at the edge of the Berkeley campus. The old space had a large, beautiful art gallery.	None	http://mcc.berkeley.edu/
X	Cornell University	Multicultural Living and Learning Unit (McLLU)	Similar to Dartmouth, the multicultural centers are housing living-learning units. They contain themed programs and house students within existing residence halls. Not newly built, nor programmed. Does not seem relevant to U-M project.	None	http://living.sas.cornell.edu/live/wheretolive/program_houses/Multicultural-Living-Learning-Unit.cfm
X	Northeastern Illinois University	Angelina Pedrosa Center for Cultural Diversity	Designed and programmed for this express purpose. Building was a renovation, not a new construction.	Design Organization Architects, Chicago	http://www.neiu.edu/~cdia/Home.html
X	University of Nebraska	Jackie Guaghan Multicultural Center	Claimed to be the largest multicultural center in the country at 30,000 gsf. Opened in 2010. It houses series of reservable conference rooms, tutoring rooms, students offices, areas for faculty. It is a new wing attached to the Student Union.	Dana Larson Roubal in association with Moody Nolan Architects	http://unions.unl.edu/jgmc
X	Kansas University	Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center	The center is used primarily for tutoring but can be used for a variety of activities. It is 7,000 gsf. Not sure of relevance.	Gould Evans Architecture, Kansas City, Missouri.	http://www.oma.ku.edu/
X	University of Illinois - Chicago	Latino Cultural Center	Building was not designed as a cultural center and it seems that they are currently doing some minor renovations in-house (not using architect)	None	http://latinocultural.uic.edu/
X	Georgetown University	Black House	Not much information on the website regarding the facility, but more available on the programming. The organization is housed in the Leavey Center, which is their Student Union.	Unknown	http://cmea.georgetown.edu/blackhouse/
X	Ohio State University	Multicultural Center	Newly constructed in 2010; a "center" within the new Student Union building.	Moody Nolan Architects.	http://multiculturalcenter.osu.edu/
