Subject: ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS | NCID Postdoctoral Fellowship & Scholar-in-Residence
To: <ebrammer@umich.edu>

Announcing two exciting opportunities for scholars pursuing research and scholarship that addresses issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion.

NCID Postdoctoral Fellowship

The NCID Postdoctoral Fellowship is a one-year (12-month) fellowship that is geared towards early career scholars engaging in diversity scholarship. Applications are welcome from diversity scholars in any field represented in the University of Michigan's schools and colleges.

NCID Scholar-in-Residence

This new initiative at NCID is available to mid-career and senior diversity scholars interested in spending an academic year at the University of Michigan.

NCID Scholars-in-Residence will have the opportunity to pursue their research and

This fellowship offers protected time for focused independent scholarship, as well as the opportunity to engage with the rich intellectual community at the University of Michigan. Fellows will also receive mentoring support from faculty in their academic departments.

Applicants' doctoral or comparable terminal degrees should be completed between July 1, 2016 and July 1, 2019.
