Dear Rackham Graduate School Community:

Please share with your graduate student communities one more reminder about the applications for the University of Michigan Edward A. Bouchet Graduate Honor Society. Applications are due on Wednesday, October 31, 2018.

In the spirit of Edward Alexander Bouchet, and the scholarship, leadership, character, service, and advocacy he exhibited, inductees into the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society must exhibit those same qualities. The Bouchet Graduate Honor Society seeks to develop a network of scholars who exemplify academic and personal excellence and serve as examples for students who have been traditionally underrepresented in the academy.

We encourage programs to invite their students to apply, as they learn more about the society and its eligibility criteria.

Blogs from our most recent inductees are available at Discover Rackham.

Our sincerest thanks,

Ethriam Cash Brammer, Ph.D.
