Hello IWG,

Jad and I will be announcing this event at the meeting this afternoon, so I wanted to forward this to you all so you'd have all the information. We are still accepting RSVP's!

SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION THROUGH PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Monday, October 8, 2018 | 2:00 - 5:00pm
Palmer Commons, Forum Hall

This two-part event will convene the campus community to explore alignments between two Presidential initiatives – public engagement & impact, and diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI); build recognition for DEI-focused public engagement; and mobilize our communities for future action.

Panelists will share perspectives on how students, staff and faculty can most effectively build partnerships outside of the university to drive social change. President Mark S. Schlissel will provide welcoming remarks and the panel will be moderated by Earl Lewis, U-M Director of the Center for Social Solutions and Professor of History and Afroamerican and African Studies. Panelists include:

Mary Jo Callan, Director of the Ginsberg Center

Abdul El-Sayed, Former Democratic Candidate for Michigan Governor and Former Executive Director for the Detroit Health Department and Health Officer for the City of Detroit

Angela Reyes, Executive Director and Founder of the Detroit Hispanic Development Corporation

Jim Leija, Director of Education and Community Engagement at the University Musical Society

Luis Trelles, Producer of Radio Ambulante at NPR and 2018 Knight Wallace-Fellow

Following the panel, please join a series of working discussions on critical issues in DEI-focused engagement and formulate action plans to support future efforts.

Please RSVP and visit the event page for more details.
