Dear IWG Colleagues:

I hope you all had a wonderful weekend.

During our meeting on Friday, I was asked if Rackham had implemented the use of a MENA box on its admissions application.

Starting with this year's admissions cycle (Fall 2019), Rackham has begun to integrate the MENA identity on our application.

Like other applications on campus, prospective graduate students are given the option to identify racially as White, with Middle Eastern and North African in parenthesis.

When they select the White box, they are then provided with a menu allowing them to then select among: "Europe", "Middle East", "North Africa" or "Other".

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Thanks so much.

Best wishes,

E

We acknowledge that the University of Michigan, named for Michigami, the world's largest freshwater system and located in the Huron River watershed, was formed and has grown through connections with the land stewarded by Niswi Ishkodewan Anishinaabeg--the Three Fires People, who are the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi--along with their neighbors the Seneca, Delaware, Shawnee, and Wyandot nations.
