Who We Are… What We Do

The University of Michigan School of Dentistry is one of the nation's leading dental schools engaged in oral health care education, patient care, research, and community service. General dental care clinics and specialty clinics providing advanced treatment enable the School to offer dental services and programs to patients throughout Michigan. Classroom and clinic instruction prepare future dentists, dental specialists, and dental hygienists for practice in private offices, hospitals, academia, and public agencies. Research seeks to discover and apply new knowledge that can help patients worldwide. More information is available on the Web at: www.dent.umich.edu.
