THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
REGENTS COMMUNICATION
ITEM FOR INFORMATION

Subject: Annual CESF Reports

Each year, the Committees on the Economic Status of the Faculty (CESFs) of all three campuses present their annual reports to the Regents in July.

The purpose of this Regents Communication is to highlight the importance of the work of these three committees, particularly in the current financial climate, and to draw attention to their reports provided in your July meeting materials.

(Submitted July, 2009)

Regents' Bylaw 4.04. The Senate Assembly shall serve as the legislative arm of the senate…The assembly shall have power to consider and advise regarding all matters within the jurisdiction of the University Senate which affect the functioning of the University as an institution of higher learning, which concern its obligations to the state and to the community at large, and which relate to its internal organization insofar as such matters of internal organization involve general questions of educational policy.
