Agenda for April 2016 Meeting with Department of Public Safety and Security
Monday, April 11, 8-9 AM, LSA Building, room 2001

DPSS Responses to hate crimes and hate incidents
Questions about the responsibility and role of DPSS with bias incidents/hate incidents/hate crimes

- What do you do when you receive a call about chalking in the Diag or threats to students?
- What is the relationship between bias reporting through the Dean of Students' Office and DPSS?
- What cultural competency training does DPSS have?
- Recommendations to students for how to report incidents and work with DPSS regarding a specific incident

Federal case law on free speech protections and constraints on responses

- Lawful versus unlawful speech

Recent incidents

- What actions were taken by DPSS in response to these hate incidents?
- Student feedback about experiences with DPSS when they are called for assistance re anti-Islam incidents: Examples of what has been helpful and what has been problematic

Communication

- If students experience improper behavior from a DPSS officer (such as bias, disrespect, or profiling), what are the internal mechanisms in place to educate such an officer?
    - How best to communicate with DPSS if students have a concern or question about DPSS's role after an incident

- How and what to communicate with the broader student community about anti-Islam incidents
    - What to do when involved or witnessing an incident?
    - What to expect from DPSS? What to do to help DPSS do its job best?
    - Publicizing campus and community resources

Additional recommendations/requests/questions

- From students to DPSS
- From DPSS to students
- Ways DPSS can help promote an inclusive community

University support and resources available to identity groups experiencing harm