You may be interested in the information listed below about an upcoming debate. Please feel free to forward this information to friends and associates who live in or near Livonia who may be interested in it.

Note that you are receiving this message either because you filled in a TAFM "Keep Me Posted" card, or gave us your business card, or otherwise indicated interest in being kept informed. If you do not wish to receive such notices, please send an e-mail to "info@towardafairmichigan.org". Thank you.

Event title:	"Affirmative Action? It's Debatable" A Debate on Affirmative Action., held during the 2006 Spring Conference of the Michigan Conservative Union (guest speaker: Phyllis Schlafly)
Date:	April 29, 2006
Time:	Conference begins at 9:30 am; debate scheduled, 11:30 am to 1:00 pm
Location:	Laurel Manor 39000 Schoolcraft Rd. Livonia, MI 48150
Speakers:	Rev. Darryl R. Curtis, Pastor, Family Life Baptist Church and retired manager, SBC Telecommunications Company Mr. Tom McMillin, CPA, Landarc and member of the City Council (and former mayor) of the City of Auburn Hills
Cosponsors:	Toward A Fair Michigan Michigan Conservative Union
Cost:	$39/person; $69/married couples (includes breakfast) To register, visit the conference website at: http://www.conservativemi.org/spring_conference_06.htm Registration deadline extended to April 24

Thank you.

Carol Allen
Program Director
Toward A Fair Michigan