"Affirmative Action: Pro & Con"

Take some time before voting on November 7th to learn more about the public policy of affirmative action – both its "pro" side and its "con" side. Union will cosponsor a debate on this topic with the non-profit, non-partisan educational organization, Toward A Fair Michigan

DATE: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19TH
TIME: 7:00 TO 8:30 P.M.
LOCATION: UNION MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH GYMNASIUM

The two debaters are:

William B. Allen, Ph.D. – Professor of Political Science at Michigan State University and former member and chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. He has published recent scholarship on higher education, citizenship, Machiavelli, ideals of global community, religious liberty and other topics.

Vidu Soni, Ph.D. is a Professor of Public Administration at Central Michigan University, where she specializes in American Government, Public Administration, and Public Policy. She has published and presented papers on many aspects of affirmative action, diversity in the workplace, and personnel management. She is the 2004 recipient of the Michigan Public Service Award in Academia.

The debate is free and open to the general public, so invite your friends!

~ Carol Allen, Program Director
Toward A Fair Michigan