Hi folks
I met with Chief Neumann today and he confirmed that ED Washington and President Schlissel have both signed off on the bylaws update! We are just trying to figure out where in the bureaucracy of the university we have to go to officially finalize the policy and get it logged wherever it needs to go - probably OGC. He said he would share an update soon.
Best
Sarah

Land Acknowledgment*:* The University of Michigan is located on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabe people, including the Odawa, Ojibwe, Potawatomi, and Wyandot nations. The territory was taken in the Treaty with the Wyandots in 1817 as part of a larger process of indigenous dispossession that continues to this day.
