Neighborhood Watch Notification Crime Alert

Significant Criminal Events for May 31, 2006 – June 6, 2006

Auto Thefts

Location of Stolen Vehicle	INFO	Recovered
2500 Packard	1998 purple Plymouth Breeze, 4 door with plate: ABS 7496	No
2100 Packard	1995 light brown Mercury Mystique, 4 door with plate: AET 6331	No

Felonious Assault

Date	Location	Info	Suspect
6-9-06 (Midnights)	3500 Plymouth Rd.	Officers responded to an armed robbery at the CVS on Plymouth Road. Officers were advised that an employee observed a person with a gun walk back to the pharmacy. The suspect came into the pharmacy area and pointed the gun at the pharmacist. The suspect took some pills and fled the store.	White male, 6'0" in height, mustache and medium build, wearing all black with black & white shoes and white gloves, carrying a black hand gun.

Armed Robbery

Date	Location	Info	Suspect
6-14-06 (Midnights)	1500 Pauline	The suspect was walking his friend home when he observed a naked male hiding behind a bush. The naked male started running and the suspect chased him with his gun out. The suspect fired a round in the air to try to get the naked male to stop.	arrested

Home Invasions

Location (Block #)	Method of Entry	Property Taken	Suspect Info
500 Walnut	unknown method of entry	laptop	none
400 S. Fourth Ave.	attempted to pry window open, entry not gained.	one	none
400 Eighth St.	open window	laptop	Believed to be known, case under investigation.
600 E. University Ave.	open window	none	arrested
3800 Green Brier Blvd.	forced open apartment door	gift basket	none

2100 Champagne Dr.	broke handle to rear door	none	none

CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

Travel Tips

(Washington, D.C.) - Memorial Day weekend signaled the beginning of summer vacations and travel for many people. The National Crime Prevention Council wants to help you leave your worries behind; but not your common sense when traveling. Make your vacation a memorable one by taking a few simple precautions when you're on the road and at your destination.

1. Packing and Planning:
    a. Research your vacation destination. Decide in advance where you want to go and how to get there. Looking and feeling confident helps reduce the appearance of being a tourist. That's important, because criminals often view tourists as the most vulnerable of potential victims.
    b. Take only credit cards that you absolutely need and bring traveler's checks instead of cash.
    c. Record information on the credit cards and valuable equipment that you plan to bring with you. Copy your passport and other important documents and secure the information in a safe place.
2. On the Road:
    a. Carry your purse close to your body. Keep your wallet in an inside front pocket.
    b. Take your keys with you and always lock the car when it's parked, even if your stop is brief. Keep valuables out of sight, preferably in the trunk.
    c. Stick to well-lighted and well-traveled streets at all times.
    d. Select ATM machines in visible, well-lighted locations.
3. In the Hotel:
    a. Don't leave valuables in your hotel room. Most hotels have safes for guest use.
    b. Keep your hotel room door locked, even when you are inside. Check all window locks, especially if you are on a low floor.
    c. Don't let anyone in your room who you don't know. Verify any unexpected visit or delivery by calling the front desk and asking to see identification.
4. Family Safety:
    a. Review your family's safety rules with your children.
    b. Make sure that everyone in your party -adults, teens and children - has the name, address and phone number of the place you are staying and carries that information at all times.
    c. Set up rules for each day's outings on where and how you'll link up if you become separated. Agree on a meeting place, just in case.
    d. Rent cellular phones, so that you can keep in touch with family members if you are on different excursions or day trips.

The 23rd Annual National Night Out
Tuesday, August 1, 2006
Join the Tradition - Look for more information in upcoming bulletins and start your neighborhood planning!

Acknowledging that all computers do not have the same capabilities, please try the method below. I will continue to write the bulletins and place them on the web page with pictures and place the link in the text message. I will include the text information in the email without pictures.

To view the web pages please follow the steps below:

1. Open the City of Ann Arbor's Webpage: www.ci.ann-arbor.mi.us.

2. Under Quick links open the police page. The latest bulletin is on the right hand side.

3. On the left hand side there is a link to the Neighborhood Watch page, you may click on this for the archive list of Bulletins.

This information is being sent to all Volunteer Neighborhood Watch Block Captains. If you have any questions or further information regarding this Alert, please contact Adele El-Ayoubi, Crime Prevention Specialist via email at aelayoubi@ci.ann-arbor.mi.us or phone 994-8775. If you need immediate police service, please call 911.