Contexts

Impacts

Contexts

Inputs

Stakeholders

Understanding & Assets

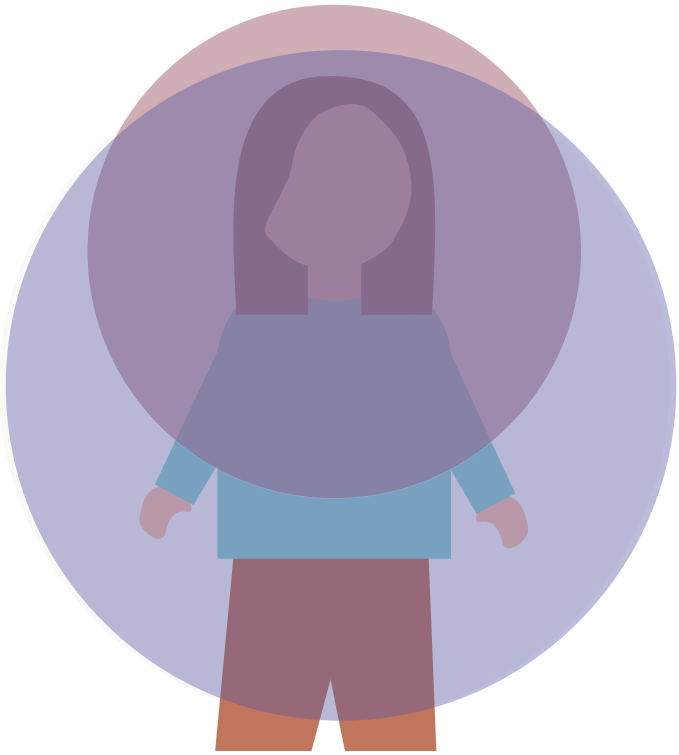

“I understand and bring”

S Self Set

Stakeholders

Understanding & Assets

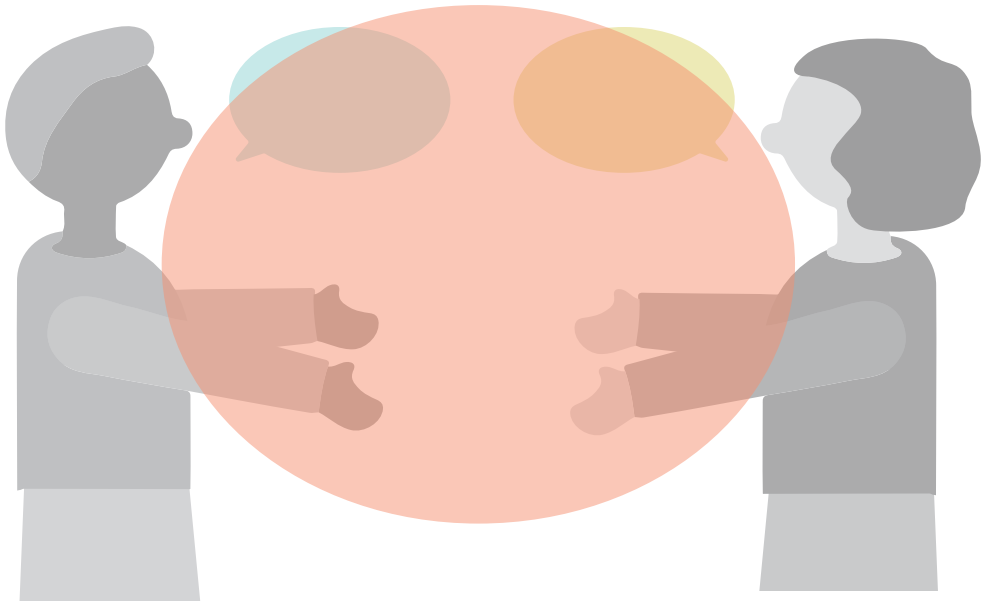

“My partner understands and brings”

P Partner Set

Relationships

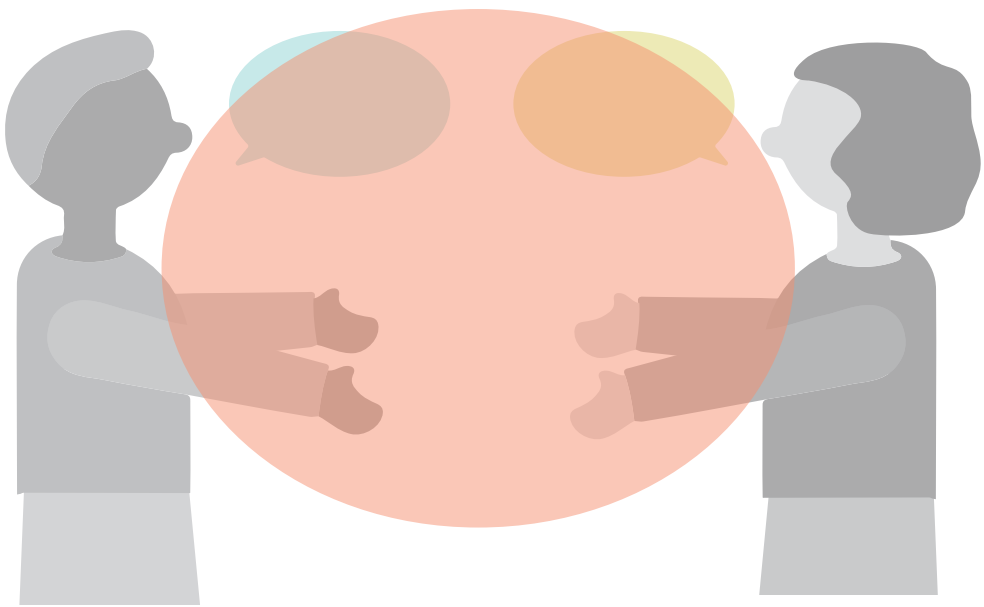

Qualities

P Partner Set

Relationships

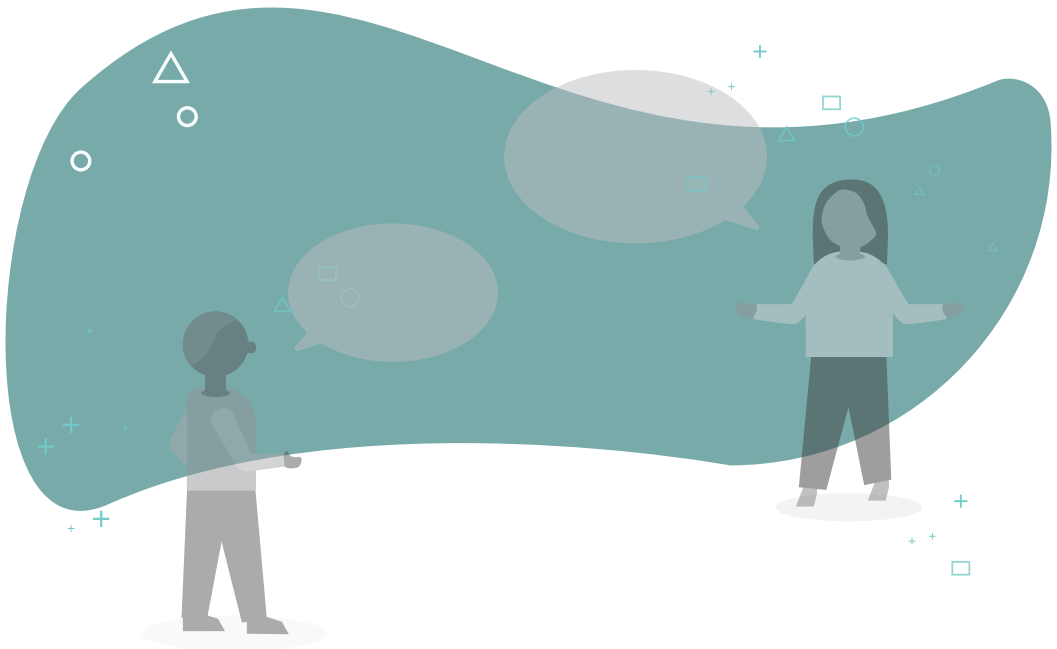

Qualities

S Self Set

Contexts

Domains

Stakeholders

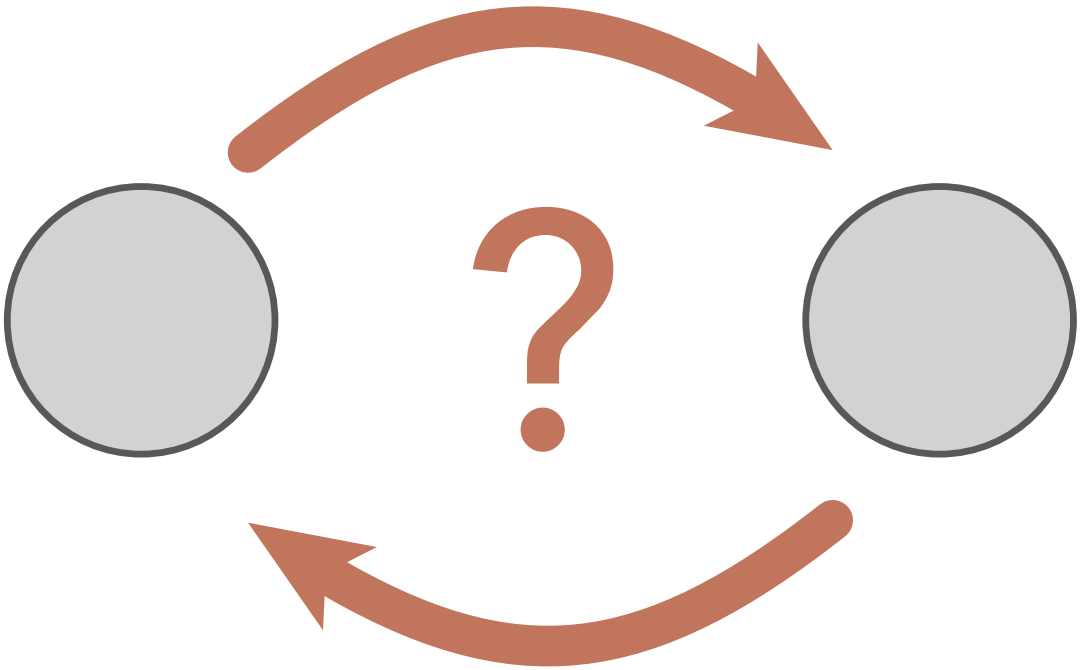

Identity

“I am”

Relationships

Types

Instrumental Impacts

Describe the tangible change(s) in policies or practices that you hope to achieve through this engagement activity, including who will be making these changes and where they will be taking place.

Funding

Describe the monetary resources, including amount or source, that are needed for this engagement activity.

Experiences

Describe a past personal lived experience that you think is relevant to this engagement activity.

Rate your strength:

1 2 3 4 5

Contexts

Describe any larger historical or contemporary social contexts that you think are relevant to your partner for this engagement activity.

Credibility

How does being believable or worthy of trust relate to this engagement activity?

Credibility

How does being believable or worthy of trust relate to this engagement activity?

Applied Practice & Professional Consulting

Describe any social norms, expectations, or practices that might apply within this domain.

Social Identity

Describe how you see yourself, or how others might see you with respect to different social categories (e.g. age, race, socioeconomic class, etc).

Inform

To offer accurate information so that partners can better understand an issue

What implications does this relationship type have for your engagement activity?