Half-Time:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, WE CELEBRATE THE MICHIGAN MARCHING BAND'S CENTENNIAL SEASON WITH MUSIC COMPOSED FOR THE OCCASION BY A FORMER MEMBER OF THE BAND--NOTED ARRANGER JOHN HIGGINS. HERE IS THE YELLOW AND BLUE FANFARE.

Music: Yellow and Blue Fanfare

TODAY THE MICHIGAN MARCHING BAND PRESENTS THE GREATEST HITS OF "OLD BLUE EYES"...THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD...FRANCIS ALBERT SINATRA.

Music: New York, New York

ONE OF FRANK SINATRA'S LATER HITS BECAME HIS SIGNATURE TUNE. FOR SURELY, THROUGH HIS 82 YEARS...FROM BAND SINGER TO POP ICON...HE DID IT "HIS WAY."

Music: My Way

FROM HIS EARLIEST DAYS WITH HARRY JAMES, SINATRA ALWAYS TEAMED UP WITH THE BEST...INCLUDING COLLABORATIONS WITH THE LEGENDARY DUKE ELLINGTON. (Script follows re:_ _ _ _ _ _ _ appearance in Ann Arbor.)

Music: Dance of the Floreadors

IN ADDITION TO MORE THAN 1400 RECORDED SONGS, FRANK SINATRA'S MOVIE CAREER SPANNED SOME FORTY YEARS--AND INCLUDED AN ACADEMY AWARD. WE CONCLUDE WITH MUSIC HE SANG IN GUYS AND DOLLS, HERE'S LUCK BE A LADY TONIGHT.

Music: Luck Be a Lady Tonight

Band spells out "THANKS, KEITH" in honor of ABC's retiring Keith Jackson.
