Dear Congressman Knollenberg,

I am writing you in regards to a matter which I feel is very important. The issue of Capital Punishment. I feel that it should be a law that if you are found lawfully and legally guilty of a crime such as murder, rape, child molestation, etc, then you should be put to death.

It is of utmost concern that attention be brought to this issue and it be properly addressed because I see no point in having people that are found guilty of an intentional crime such as stated above should have the right to live in this country while hard working men and women pay for them to be alive through our hard earned tax dollars.

For those people out there that strongly believe that the death penalty is cruel and inhumane they need to think about how the criminals have hurt the families of those people and caused them pain. How a human life was lost and cannot be replaced.

In conclusion I would like to thank you for the time you took out of your busy schedule to read a simple letter such as mine. I hope that this information has somewhat enlightened you to how you look at capital punishment.

Sincerely,

Gabriel M. Rickman
