Atlanta Georgia
Sunday Nov 6th 1864

Dear father

I thought when I wrote to B last that it would be the last time before our march but we are here yet & I will write a few lines again,
We are expecting every day to get marching orders — had inspection this forenoon preparatory to marching — are not allowed to carry an extra shirt or drawers unless we put them on

Those photographs I will send back as I do not want to carry them nor throw them away