THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
Doctoral Program in Social Work and Social Science

Independent Studies Course Approval Form[10]

Independent study courses (SW900, 971-974, 975-978) cannot ordinarily be counted to meet the minimum five course requirement or other course distribution requirements. In exceptional cases, students may elect one independent study course to meet the required number of social work doctoral courses so long as the course conforms to the distribution requirements and written approval is received from the Head of the Program.

To obtain such approval the student should complete Part 1 of the form below and solicit recommendations from the course instructor and his or her faculty adviser in Parts 2 and 3. The form should then be routed to the Doctoral Head. The Doctoral Head will inform the student of the action taken.

The completed form should be submitted to the Doctoral Office prior to the completion of the course in question.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY

Please review carefully the following definitions of the four areas of the curriculum before proceeding with the approval process.

Practice, Intervention, & Policy (PIP) courses critically analyze the conceptual bases and empirical evidence relating to the practice methods, interventions, and policies by which social work and social welfare achieve their objectives.

Social Service Systems (SSS) courses critically analyze the structures (organizational arrangements of various formal & informal social units that are designed to deliver services.

Research Methods for Practice and Policy courses address the principles and methods by which knowledge of social work and social welfare is enhanced and the methods used to analyze, design, develop, and evaluate social work practice, social service systems, and social welfare policies.

The Social Context for Practice and Policy courses critically analyze the antecedents and consequences of various human and social factors that affect critical human conditions that social work and social welfare seek to enhance.
