200 YEARS YOUNG: DETROIT AND THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

July 15-Oct. 8

Detroit Historical Museum

Admission to the Detroit Historical Museum is free. Throughout the exhibit, U-M employees can receive a 50 percent discount on a Detroit Historical Society membership.

Presented by the U-M Bicentennial Office and the Detroit Historical Society.

Where the past is present | DETROIT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1817 M 2017

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN BICENTENNIAL

Born in Detroit in 1817, the University of Michigan and its alumni are intertwined with the Motor City. Learn about two centuries of impact, including:

Alumnus Cornelius Henderson and his role in building the Ambassador Bridge.

Detroiters Gilda Radner and David Alan Grier and their U-M acting careers.

Wolverines in the 'D,' from early football to Detroit Tigers legend Bill Freehan.

Plus: civil rights struggles, famous authors, early TV, life-changing medicine, and much more!

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

U-M Bicentennial events and activities: Download at: guidebook.com/g/umich200

#umich200 bicentennial.umich.edu