

Don't Miss the UMich200 Spring Festival

There's something for everyone — exhibits, events, tours, special guests and more.

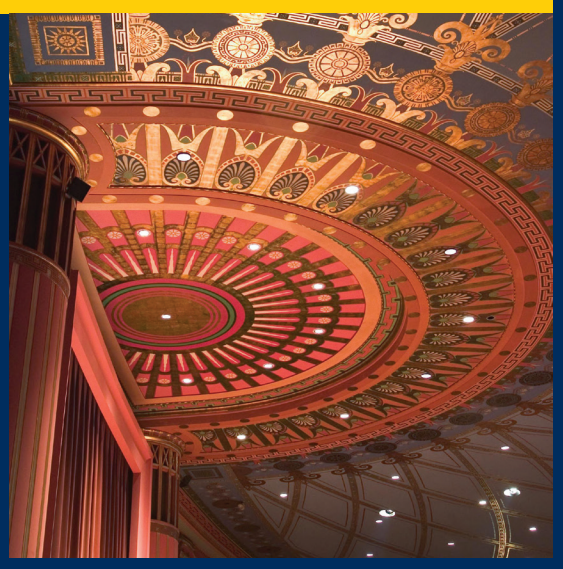

THURSDAY, APRIL 6

Flag raising ceremony
8 a.m.
Central Campus flagpole

Stumbling Blocks
Central, Medical and North Campuses
Pop-up art installations that draw attention to missteps and challenges from U-M's past. These temporary displays are a feature of the President's Bicentennial Colloquium, "The Future University Community."

Welcome Center and Book Station
10 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Michigan League Concourse
Enjoy refreshments and learn about festival events. Faculty and staff will receive the book "Always Leading, Forever Valiant," an engaging look at the history of U-M on its 200th birthday.

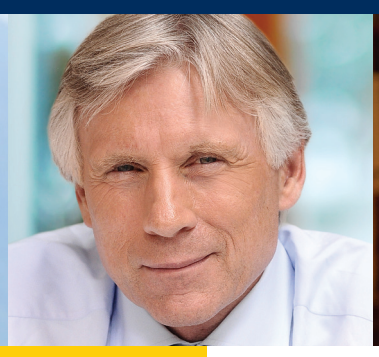

A-maizing Building Tours
10 a.m. – 3 p.m.
Free, behind-the-scenes tours of historical and unique campus landmarks.

Advance registration (required): bicentennial.umich.edu/events/festivals/a-maizing-building-tours/

The Research University and Society: Five U-M Presidents on 40 Years of History
4:30 – 6 p.m.
Rackham Auditorium
Former U-M Presidents Harold T. Shapiro (1980 – 1987), James J. Duderstadt (1988 – 1996), Lee C. Bollinger (1996 – 2001) and Mary Sue Coleman (2002 – 2014) will join President Mark Schlissel in a conversation about the past and future of Michigan and higher education. The discussion is a feature of the President's Bicentennial Colloquium, "The Evolving Bargain between Research Universities and Society." Reception to follow.

Feast of Ideas
6 – 9 p.m.
Various locations
A showcase of U-M's academic excellence, with faculty from diverse disciplines presenting 20-minute talks at local shops, restaurants and galleries.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Tree planting ceremony
11:30 a.m.
Diag
An elm sapling will be added to Central Campus to mark the bicentennial and continue the legacy of plantings that gave the Diag its park-like character.

Stumbling Blocks
Central, Medical and North Campuses
(see April 6 description)

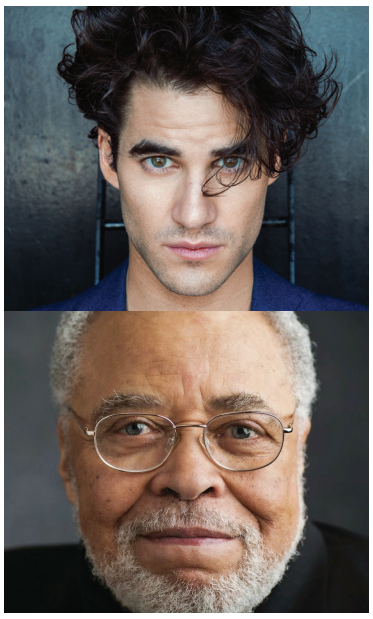

A-maizing Building Tours
9 a.m. – 10:30 p.m.
(see April 6 description)

Interactive Carillon Concert
Noon – 12:30 p.m.
Burton Memorial Tower
Before the concert, visit jukebells.com to select the piece you want to hear; results will be tallied and performed in real time by University Carillonist Tiffany Ng.

Community of Cultures Festival
3 – 6 p.m.
North Campus: Pierpont Commons and Duderstadt Center
A celebration of U-M's diversity and an intersection of culture, art and social advocacy through more than 25 cultural student organizations.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Stumbling Blocks
Central, Medical and North Campuses
(see April 6 description)

True Blue! A Tribute to Michigan
7 p.m.
Hill Auditorium
James Earl Jones, Darren Criss, Jacqueline Toboni, Sanjay Gupta, Andrea Joyce and Cecilia Muñoz are among the distinguished alumni who will join U-M students, faculty and coaches in a live multi-media performance bringing noteworthy achievements in U-M history to life through dance, music and dramatic performances.

Public reception to follow immediately afterward on Ingalls Mall.

Ticket information available at the Michigan Union Ticket Office.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

#UMich200
bicentennial.umich.edu

Bicentennial events and activities:
guidebook.com/g/umich200