ONE UNIVERSITY

Rally for Equity for Flint and Dearborn! Stand Against Austerity in this Time of Crisis!

For two years, the 1U Coalition has asked the elected Regents of the University of Michigan for more equitable funding for Flint and Dearborn. But they have not delivered.

Regent Mike Behm claims to be a strong supporter of the Flint campus, but he has not stood up for us or the Dearborn campus by committing to equity for our students! Similarly, he has stood by as the Flint and Dearborn campuses have slashed courses, faculty, and staff in response to projected COVID 19-related budget shortfalls, even as the UofM endowment sits at over 12 billion dollars.

Come join us for a socially-distanced demonstration at Regent Behm's law offices at 10 AM on Thursday June 18th! We will be standing together, but six feet apart, demanding equity for our campuses. For those not able to stand on the sidewalk due to COVID-19, or any other reasons, please plan to drive by the demonstration, honking your car horns, beginning at 11 AM.

Where: Behm & Behm PC, 209 W.H. Schwartz Dr. in Flint
When: 10 AM, June 18 (car protestors arrive at 11 AM)
What to bring: A mask (we'll have extras if you forget!) and your voice! (As well as signs, instruments, or noisemakers if you want!)
