Conference Travel Support

Fellowship Description

The Conference and Travel Support Grant will be awarded only in cases where other sources of funding are exhausted or inadequate. Applicants, if they have not already done so, are strongly encouraged to apply to Rackham, OVPR, LSA, and their respective departments or professional schools for travel funds before applying to the center. The funds will be provided as reimbursements of travel expenses in compliance with the University and International Institute's travel guidelines. Candidates must secure approval prior to travel.

Requirements & Eligibility

- LRCCS faculty associates attending professional meetings in the United States or overseas to give papers, chair panels, act as discussants, or serve in an executive capacity.

Deadline: Rolling

Application Procedure

Complete and submit the online Faculty Conference Travel Support Application